Zero effort and Zero expense put out by this shady developer. They simply downloaded an asset kit on Unity completely FREE and changed the name and then put it up for sale HERE.

Here is the asset kit they got for free on Unity and used for this game...

Please DO NOT support this lazy and corrupt developer who really isn't a developer at all, but rather is nothing more than a "thief" who is stealing other peoples work and selling it as their own work for a quick profit.. There is not much i could add to what the previous reviewer stated except that perhaps the only game involved here is the game of slickly attempting to part people from their money. Steam should be ashamed of themselves for selling this gem of a "game".
